

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE Friday, January 24, 2003

CONTACT: Bill Nowling (517) 373-5899 bnowling@senate.michigan.gov

Advice & Consent Hearings Set

State Police, Military Affairs directors to appear before Committee on Government Operations on Jan. 28

LANSING – Senate Majority Leader Ken Sikkema, R-Wyoming, announced today that the Committee on Government Operations will hold its next round of advice and consent hearings at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 28 for the directors of the departments of Military Affairs and State Police.

Brig. Gen. Thomas Cutler, appointed director of the Department of Military Affairs will appear before the committee first. He will be followed by Lt. Col. Tadarial Sturidivant, who has been appointed director of the Department of State Police.

Sikkema also announced target dates for the remaining advice and consent hearings. Those hearings are as follows:

Week of Feb. 3	William Anderson, Dept. of History, Arts & Libraries William Overton, Dept. of Corrections
Week of Feb. 10	Steven Chester, Dept of Environmental Quality Janet Olszewski, Dept. of Community Health
Week of Feb. 17	Teresa Takai, Dept. of Information Technology Nannett Bowler, Family Independence Agency
Week of Feb. 24	Gloria Jeff, Dept. of Transportation Director TBA, Dept. Management & Budget.

Specific days and times of the hearings will be announced prior to each week's scheduled hearings.